

CALL FOR PAPERS

Centre for Urban Economic Studies (CUES) is delighted to announce that the 42nd Annual Conference of the Centre will be held on January 18, 2023. CUES is a research centre dedicated to the study of different related areas of Urban Economics for more than 4 decades. It aims at developing cutting-edge research in all areas of urban economics, both theoretical and empirical.

Urbanisation has gained importance in the national economy lately. Urbanisation is associated with industrialization, migration, development of transport, housing, sanitation etc, which are not only integral parts of urbanization but also play complementary roles in development of the economy as a whole. The conference titled “Industrialisation, Migration and Urbanisation” will focus on new directions in research and policymaking. Areas of interest include, but are not confined to:

1. Urban Industrialisation and related topics
2. Urban Labour
3. Migration and Problems of Urban Unemployment
4. Urban Transportation
5. Urban Housing
6. Urban Sanitation
7. Urban Planning
8. Urban Poverty
9. Urban Crime
10. Urban Municipal Finance

The conference will be held offline in the Centre for Urban Economic Studies, University of Calcutta, Alipore Campus, (6th Floor, A Wing, 1, Reformatory Street, Kolkata 700027). There is no registration fee for participation or presenting a paper in the Conference. Selected papers presented in the Conference will be published in an edited volume with ISBN. Please note that no TA/DA will be given to the participants for presentation in the seminar. Participants will have to pay for their accommodation and travel cost on their own.
