

Call for Papers for Research Scholars' Workshop

As a part of Centenary celebration of Department of Economics, University of Calcutta, the department is going to organize a Research Scholar Workshop on “Economic Growth and Regional Disparities: Theories and Empirics” in February 14-15, 2018. Papers are invited from registered PhD scholars from different Institutions on following sub themes:

1. Capital Market Institutions
2. Development Economics
3. Issues in Social Sectors
4. International Trade
5. Political Economy
6. Labour Market issues
7. Environment and Sustainability
8. Urban studies and Infrastructure
9. Economic History

Scholars are requested to send their full papers in Microsoft Word or PDF format, with Times New Roman Font 12, 1.5 spacing and text justified. The paper should have an abstract of 150 words and the following information in the given form. Mathematical equations, if typed in MS Word, should be typed by using the ‘Equation Editor’ command.”

Selected candidates will have to submit a certificate from the Supervisor that the paper is written by a registered scholar. The paper presenters will be offered local hospitality and limited travel grant. The papers, upon authors’ discretion, will be considered for publication in the department journal Arthaniti.

Address for all communications: econrswcu@gmail.com

Important dates:

Last date of submission: December 17, 2017 (12:00 midnight, IST)

Acceptance notification: January 10, 2018

Details to be filled in copied at the front page of the paper

Authors
Corresponding Author
Affiliation
Full Postal Address
Email Address
Phone Number
Title of the paper
Sub theme
JEL codes	